Project Title: Riot Games Brief Project

Page Brief

This Website will have multiple pages. The navigation bar will be located at the top of the website allowing the users to explore the websites directly. Since At the bottom of each page, there will be a button that allows the viewers of the website to naturally move along to the next page (and also accepting the comment from the previous website design). This site will focus on different video games created by the Riot Games Company, and their history as well as the general game.

Introduction/Homepage

This Page will have the information of riot games, and a general welcome page. Since it will also serve as a homepage, it will contain all the games that are currently made by Riot games

Individual Games Page

This page, which corresponds to each of the games created by Riot games, will have information about that specific game. This will include their information, how the game is played, and some mascot characters that will pull the readers into the game. At the bottom of each of this page, there will be a button saying "play now" that leads to the game's main homepage website

Prototypes/In Progress Games

If there is any, this part of the website will deal with the currently being developed games that the new users could participate in. It will be open depending on the game that is available to the users
